ORDER DENYING
PLAINTIFF'S MOTION
TO ALTER OR AMEND
THE JUDGMENT AND
FOR LEAVE TO FILE
AN AMENDED
COMPLAINT
(Docket No. 63)

12 On July 15, 2014, the Court entered an order granting motions
13 to dismiss filed by Defendants the State of California, the 14 California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC), CPUC President 15 Michael Peevey and California Attorney General Kamala Harris (the 16 State Defendants) and Defendant Itron, Inc. Docket No. 55. On 17 September 15, 2014, the Court entered an order denying Plaintiff
18 Deborah Cooney's motion for default judgment against San Diego Gas
19 and Electric (SDG&E) and dismissing the claims against SDG&E.
20 Docket No. 60. The Court entered judgment. Docket Nos. 61 and 21 62. Plaintiff has now filed a motion to alter or amend the 22 judgment and for leave to file an amended complaint. The State
23 Defendants, Itron and SDG&E oppose the motion. Having considered
24 the parties' papers and the record in this case, the Court GRANTS
25 PLAINTIFF'S MOTION IN PART and DENIES IT IN PART.

DISCUSSION

2 Plaintiff moves pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure
3 52(a), 59(e), 60(a) and 60(b) to alter or amend the judgment in 4 this case. Plaintiff asserts that (1) the judgment is void due to 5 lack of jurisdiction; (2) the complaint can be amended to state a 6 claim and she should be granted leave to amend the complaint; and 7 (3) she is entitled to relief from the judgment based upon fraud
8 on the Court.

9 I. Jurisdiction

10 Plaintiff first argues that the judgment is void because the 11 Court lacked jurisdiction over her state law claims. Accordingly,
12 Plaintiff argues, the Court lacked the authority to dismiss her 13 claims with prejudice.

14 A. Eleventh Amendment Claims

15 Plaintiff first correctly notes that her state law claims
16 against Attorney General Harris and CPUC President Peevey were 17 dismissed based on a lack of jurisdiction due to the Eleventh
18 Amendment. "The Eleventh Amendment is a limit on federal courts' 19 jurisdiction." Freeman v. Oakland Unified Sch. Dist., 179 F.3d
20 846, 847 (9th Cir. 1999) (internal citations omitted).

21 "Dismissals for lack of jurisdiction should be without prejudice 22 so that a plaintiff may reassert his claims in a competent court."
23 Id. (internal quotation marks omitted). Accordingly, Plaintiff
24 argues that the Court should have dismissed the claims without 25 prejudice to filing in state court. The Court GRANTS Plaintiff's 26 motion on this ground and dismisses the claims against Attorney 27 General Harris and CPUC President Peevey without prejudice to 28 filing in state court.

1           B.     Claims Barred by California Public Utility Code § 1759
2         Plaintiff next argues that the Court erred when it dismissed
3 her state law claims against Itron and SDG&E with prejudice. The 4 Court found that those claims were barred by California Public
5 Utility Code § 1759. The Court noted that § 1759 "bars private 6 actions against utilities where the relief granted would undermine 7 a regulatory regime established by the California Public Utility 8 Commission." Docket No. 55 at 7, citing San Diego Gas & Elec. Co.
9 v. Superior Court, 13 Cal. 4th 893, 902-03 (1996). Because § 1759
10 not only bars federal courts from hearing such cases but instead 11 bars such private actions in any court, there is no other 12 "competent court" in which Plaintiff could bring these claims.
13 Accordingly, the Court did not err when dismissing Plaintiff's 14 state law claims against Itron and SDG&E with prejudice. The 15 Court DENIES Plaintiff's motion on this ground.

16       II.    Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 52 and 15

17         Plaintiff next argues that "the Complaint can easily be 18 amended to state a claim for relief" and that the Court should 19 reverse its findings pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure
20 52 and allow her to amend her complaint. Docket No. 63 at 3.
21 However, as Defendants point out, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure
22 52 relates to findings of fact and conclusions of law. The Court
23 has made no such findings or conclusions. Accordingly, Rule 52
24 provides no basis for challenging the Court's judgment in this 25 case. Further, "once judgment has been entered in a case, a 26 motion to amend the complaint can only be entertained if the 27 judgment is first reopened." Lindauer v. Rogers, 91 F.3d 1355, 28 1357 (9th Cir. 1996). Because Plaintiff has provided no basis for

1 reopening the judgment, the Court need not address her arguments
2 in favor of leave to amend.

3 III. Fraud Upon the Court

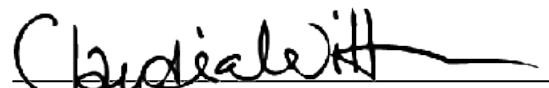

4 Finally, Plaintiff argues that she is entitled to relief from 5 the judgment "for reasons of both intrinsic and extrinsic fraud
6 upon the Court." Docket No. 63 at 8. However, Plaintiff provides 7 no basis for such a finding. Instead, she asserts that the fact
8 that the Court rejected her arguments in opposition to the motions
9 to dismiss is itself evidence of fraud. This is not sufficient to 10 support a claim of fraud on the court.

11 CONCLUSION

12 For the reasons stated above, the Court GRANTS IN PART 13 Plaintiff's motion to alter or amend the judgment. The Clerk of 14 the Court shall enter an amended judgment indicating that 15 Plaintiff's state law claims against Attorney General Harris and 16 CPUC President Peevey are dismissed without prejudice to refiling
17 in state court. The Court DENIES Plaintiff's motion in all other 18 respects.
